Most every other dealer." not pay much attention to the trouble, but in the next appropriation for county purposes a certain sum was set apart for the support of the "indignant" poor. The same distinguished Board, in speaking of an ancient railroad bill, had the following brilliant gem of thought inscribed on the records: "This act, like a refulon the records: gent milistone, will ever hang around

> I am amazed to notice how much more refined and generally civilized the Democratic politicians have become in the last month. The courteous air that each assumes when he invites his "most particular friend," the granger, in to wet his whistle, is indeed charming to the necks of its perpetrators.'

THE proposition is finding favor among the "Court House Ring" to turn the vacant District Attorney's room into a sort of sideboard saloon. It is getting tiresome steering the voter through the hot sun just to get a drink of whisky. Why not keep it on hand?

THE candidates are quite loving toward each other when they meet, but a number of them are secretly whetting their knives for use at the primaries. 'We There will be unpleasantness between a grain several of my Democratic friends before > . . That Toney expose, as far as I can see, is regarded by the people as a sort of reliable tale.

A few days ago, James Coleman, Wells-Fargo agent on the Maricopa and Phoenix railroad, picked up a lot of insane, for eight years past, and is known by all physicians who have had experience with the unfortunates, to be in was an evidence of his great and rolled them over to the train. He was about to place the boxes in the express car when a warning rattle sounded, and out from one of the boxes wriggled a large rattlesnake. It was killed before it could cross the platform.
